

WAS JOAN OF ARC NOAH'S WIFE?

Biblical Illiteracy is two fold. For starters, not knowing the classic stories to begin with. But more important than that, not knowing how the Bible relates to one's life and circumstances today.

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

1. What are the only nuts mentioned in the Bible?
2. Although not named in the New Testament, according to tradition, what were the names of two thieves that died with Jesus?
3. What prophet built a wall?
4. In what chapter of the Bible does it say "God only helps those who help themselves"?

CONNECT THE BIBLE WITH THE DAILY GRIND

What issues are young people dealing with today?

single motherhood   
  turf wars   
  blended families   
  partying
 changing neighborhoods   
  reaching foald lying dealing drugs

TastyFaith's Hero and Sheroes Series for Urban teens covers Bible stories dealing with these very issues.

WOULD HAROLD BY THY NAME?

Check out TastyFaith's Guide to Christianese. It's full of fresh translations to stale churchy language and other fun stuff. WARNING! NOT INTENDED FOR HUMOURLESS DEACONS.

PUT THE BIBLE IN YOUR OWN WORDS

Have your students write or say memory verses back in their own language. It will help them understand it.

_____ 's Translation of Isaiah 41:10

WRITE YOUR NAME HERE

---

---

---

---

---

---

WANT MORE TASTY IDEAS?

TastyFaith.com
 PO BOX 578507
 Chicago, IL 60657 USA

CALL US. WE DON'T BITE. 773-929-8217

info@TastyFaith.com
 Creating a Craving for Christ with Urban Youth (and country bumpkins, suburbies, co-workers, baby boomers, dysfunctional relatives, neighbors, spouses, etc.)

ANSWERS
 1. almonds and pistachios 2. Dismas and Gestas 3. Nehemiah 4. This is not in the Bible, however, in a 2000 poll, 75% of Americans believed that it was scripture 5. John Wycliffe. It was completed by John Purvey in 1388.